

HATTERS

JOURNAL

2012

This journal does not record everything that went on involving the Hatters in 2012. If it did, it may be used in evidence. Editorial discretion has been used to protect the innocent, not so innocent and above all, me, John Paddison.

There were many other gatherings, rideouts, functions, rallies, road trips, fund raising events and parties too numerous to mention. Hundreds more photographs from 2012 can be found in the gallery of our website, www.hatterschapter.co.uk

Guest writers Brian Mason, Ross Fearn and Dave '198' Sherlock have contributed articles recounting their experiences of ride outs, rallies and quarries.
